A WORD OF WELCOME FROM THE DEAN OF IE UNIVERSITY LAW SCHOOOL

IE Law School is proud to organize and host ICON·S 2024 Annual Conference on The Future of Public Law: Resilience, Sustainability and Artificial Intelligence.

IE Law School is a global and multidisciplinary institution that transcends legal cultures, jurisdictions, and traditions. Our mission is to foster positive change through comprehensive research, innovative teaching methodologies, and active collaborations with private and public institutions, law firms, and companies. We stand firmly behind our commitment to educate internationally-minded professionals, including lawyers, jurists, and citizens with a global vision in the practice of law.

With this conference, we wish to contribute to strengthening the links within a global community of academics and jurists in all areas of public law, including international law, constitutional law, and administrative law. We believe that legal academics and professionals must play a relevant role in society, and that global issues such as sustainability and artificial intelligence, and their impact on society, should be discussed and analyzed from a public law perspective.

Our faculty, students and staff have worked hard to ensure that you enjoy ICON·S 2024 Annual Conference. On behalf of all them, welcome to IE Law School.

Soledad Atienza
Dean, IE University Law School

A WORD OF WELCOME FROM THE ICON·S CO-PRESIDENTS

Welcome to the 2024 Annual Conference of the International Society of Public Law! We are thrilled to have you here with us at IE University for a gathering unlike any other in the world.

The ICON·S Annual Conference is the premiere festival of ideas for all areas of study in public law. You will be treated to hundreds of panels over the course of three days, covering a rich variety of subjects in administrative, constitutional, international law and beyond.

We thank you for being here. You have traveled to Madrid by the thousands to connect with colleagues old and new, to test and improve your ideas, and to learn from the innovative research of our members.

We thank our hosts for all they have done to make our stay comfortable, enjoyable, and memorable. They have prepared for months to welcome the world of public law to this marvelous campus.

We thank also our amazing teammates at ICON·S for volunteering their time in the service of our public law community. Each of them believes deeply in the mission of the Society. We salute them for their dedication to the values for which ICON·S stands tall.

The 2024 edition of our Annual Conference is special, as it marks the tenth anniversary of the founding of ICON·S. When Sabino Cassese and Joseph Weiler convened the first ICON·S Conference in Florence in 2014, they had a grand vision for building a community of public law rooted in equality, inclusion, and affirmation for all irrespective of geography, ideology, seniority, and subject-matter specialty. Today, their vision has become reality. We owe them a debt of gratitude. This conference is an occasion to thank and congratulate them—and all who have helped build the Society into the world's largest and leading learned society for the study of public law.

The state of ICON·S is as strong as it has ever been. Membership is growing, chapters are thriving, and our events continue to improve in every way.

We thank each of you for all you do to support the Society. We look forward to thanking you in person over the next three days. In the meantime, we wish you a happy start to the 2024 edition of the ICON·S Annual Conference!

Co-Presidents
The International Society of Public Law

This year, the Society celebrates its tenth anniversary with its biggest-ever conference in Madrid. Taking it forward as co-presidents from 2024-2027, we know that we step into large shoes.

Since the Society was founded by Joseph Weiler and Sabino Cassese in 2014 in Florence, the world has truly changed. It has seen a pandemic and a rise in authoritarian and semi-authoritarian regimes, and all of us are now much more aware of climate change. New ethical and legal challenges have risen with the emergence of AI and other technologies. The discipline of comparative public law, too, has changed - those here in Madrid and others elsewhere are working hard to understand how public law shapes the present and can help with the future. But with the growth of the field and of the Society, we also confront challenges.

Networks always play a role and the Society too is a network – but how open are we really to those not part of some "in-group", or to scholars who decline to treat themselves as a brand to build? How can we enable global conversations and research cooperation as we confront the need to fly less? And while legal comparison in public law is much more in vogue today than 20 years ago, it is still hard to do comparative work well. ICON-S cannot solve all these problems, but we hope to take at least some steps in the right direction in the next three years. We invite all of you to come to us with ideas, criticism, and suggestions.

LGBTQI+ Breakfast Reception

TUESDAY 9TH

09.00 - 10.00

IE Club | Floor 24

The LGBTQI+ reception's aim is to encourage discussion within ICON-S on the significance of LGBTQI+ research in public law.

We have witnessed considerable progress in LGBTQI+ rights, which was unimaginable just a few years ago. However, there is still much work to be done. We are deeply concerned by the global backlash against LGBTQI+ individuals, whose equal citizenship remains largely elusive. As academics, what can we suggest? It is essential to understand both these advancements and setbacks. But how can this be achieved?

The reception, taking place in IE Club on Tuesday 9th at 9am, will be the occasion to explore all of this (and more).

The reception will be a welcoming and friendly environment, dedicated to diversity, inclusion, and amplifying the voices of those who are often unheard.

If you would like to learn more about the event or have specific requests or suggestions, please do not hesitate to contact us. The contact persons are François Delerue (francois.delerue@ie.edu), Michele Krech (michelekrech@uchicago.edu), and Stefano Osella (osella@hku.hk).

François Delerue

Dr. François Delerue is an Assistant Professor of Law at IE University and a member of the Jean Monnet Centre of Excellence for Law and Automation. He is also an Associate Fellow of The Hague Program on International Cyber Security (Leiden University) and the GEODE Center (Paris 8 University). Dr. Delerue conducts research focusing predominantly on international law and cyber operations. More broadly, he is interested in how new technologies and activities (space activities, cyber, robotics and artificial intelligence) challenge international law and international relations. His book 'Cyber Operations and International Law' was published by Cambridge University Press in 2020 and was awarded the 2021 Book Prize of the European Society for International Law. He co-edited (together with Dennis Broeders, Fabio Cristiano, Frédérick Douzet and Aude Géry) the edited volume 'Artificial Intelligence and International Conflict in Cyberspace: Ethical, Normative, and Legal Debates' published by Routledge in 2023 (open access).

Sonsoles Arias Guedón

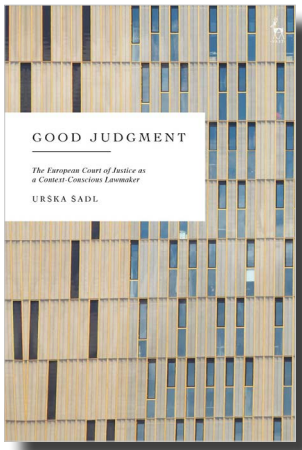

Sonsoles Arias Guedón is assistant professor at IE Law School (IE University, Spain), where she teaches Constitutional and Administrative law. She is also the co-director of the Legal Clinic. Her research interests lie in constitutional law, more specifically in the vertical division of powers -unitary and federal systems, direct democracy and referendum and constituent processes. Her latest publication has focused on the failed constitution-making process in Kenya in 2005 (I·CON, 2024). Her doctoral thesis, which focused on the Constitutions of the German Bundesländer, obtained the recognition of the Center for the Constitutional and Political Studies (Ministry of Presidency, Spain) in 2015. She has carried out research at Oxford Law School; Cambridge Faculty of Law; Bucerius Law School and Ludwig-Maximilians Universität. She is a visiting professor at Koç University (Istanbul). She has also practiced as a lawyer for several years. She is a member of the Madrid Bar Association.

Marta Cartabia is Co-President of the International Society of Public Law and a full professor of Constitutional Law at Bocconi University, Milan. She is a President Emeritus of the Italian Constitutional Court and a former Minister of Justice of Italy. She founded the Italian Chapter of ICON·S and is currently a member of the European Commission for Democracy through Law of the Council of Europe (the 'Venice Commission'). She holds a PhD from the European University Institute and a Law degree from the University of Milan.
